Nebraska Christian College Hosts 10th Avenue North Concert

Calvary Christian Church - Bellevue, NE Sep. 10, 2009

The gym was a rockin' as 10th Avenue North played to a full house Wednesday, September 9, 2009. The contemporary Christian band played a sold out concert in the Calvary Christian Activity Center with nearly 769 adults and youth in attendance. There was so much interest some fans had to be turned away to stay within state fire code regulation. "We get very excited when we have a full house but we also feel bad for those who showed-up and were not able to attend because of the capacity issue," said Ron Leach, professor of worship arts with Nebraska Christian College.

According to Leach this is one of three expected concerts to be supported by his department and the college. "We love being able to bring these community events to the greater Omaha community. This concert was especially good because 10th Avenue North creates a concert experience that is as much about worship as it is about entertainment," said Leach. "Don't get me wrong, they are incredibly gifted musicians, but for the Christian community they gave us so much more," he continued.
